Review by christopher (Posted on 01/24/2014) prodigal son screen saver Thank you. It was a pleasure to use this free screensaver. I enjoyed watching it and listening to the music. For me, it was a very easy to understand and really enjoyable message about Christ. I especially enjoyed the images. The musical accompaniment was perfect for the message. I was really pleased to find this screensaver available for free. Review by Debbie (Posted on 10/13/2013) awesome So glad I found this screen saver! My niece loves it. It's the only one she really goes back to after using it for awhile. She loves that it has music, something she can get into! She just got her first computer and this was the first screen saver I found her! Review by Patrick (Posted on 09/16/2013) excellent, too easy to use, too good to be free I was looking for a Christmasy screen saver and came across this one. It's very easy to set up, has great music, and it is very Christmasy. I only wish there was an option for it to open up on a special day like Christmas or Easter. Review by katie (Posted on 08/14/2013) God's Love I love the free screensaver from Benny Hester. This one was wonderful. The pictures are interesting and so is the song. The only thing I did not like was that it did

What's New In?

The Free Multi-Media Premium Christian Screen Saver presents the Parable of the Prodigal Son using 36 synchronized pictures, MP3 music, and lyrics. The Parable of the Prodigal Son in the Gospel of Luke is familiar to all of us. As many of us know, the primary focus of this parable is actually on God the Father. No amount of time, no amount of money, and no amount of rebellion could get in the way of the father's unconditional love for his returning son. The 36 pictures with lyrics will automatically fit to the size of your screen and are synchronized to Benny Hester's incredible song, "When God Ran". All the available pictures have 16 Million Colors and will look perfect on monitors up to 21 inches. This Free Multi-Media Premium Christian Screen Saver is sure to help you to focus on the Incredible, Unconditional love that the Lord Jesus Christ has for each and every one of us. I can say that, because I've been a teacher for the last 18 years. I've seen how people and pupils can do amazing things, especially when they realise that there is no deadline for performance, and it is perfectly fine for them to try out the task many, many times, rather than get it right first time. I get it that we can't all be best of the best, and that we have to have limits, but when these limits are exceeded it doesn't have to be a disaster. There's an example of this at work today. Everyone was in a positive mood, and we had a lot of fun! When we started at 9, we were told to be in at 9.30. This, in turn, made us very busy, because we had so little time, and it was all our own work that we had to do. We also had a set of lyrics that we had to memorise. We didn't manage to do it until 9.35. When we were at school, we used to have to repeat maths facts, which took an hour, and we had to get one question right in order to pass. As we were learning the same
