Download from TalkTalk Category: CommunicationN-Heterocyclic Carbene-Catalyzed Decarboxylative Alkylation of Lactams. A novel reaction of N-heterocyclic carbenes (NHCs) with lactams that gives 3-alkylated lactams in good to excellent yields is reported. This method represents an alternative to the standard SN2-type decarboxylative alkylation of lactams. The use of NHCs is a mild and straightforward alternative to the use of transition-metal catalysts.Family-centered psychiatry: evolution, integration, and integration. This paper was originally prepared as the keynote address for the Temple F. Henderson Lecture at the June, 1997, meeting of the Association of Family Practice Teachers of Philadelphia. Family-centered care is being implemented in an increasingly diverse array of care settings. Family relationships and needs are becoming central in the care of adults in illness. The family physician, by virtue of his or her medical care of the entire family, is uniquely positioned to address the health needs of the family and its members. In this paper, the author seeks to address some critical conceptual and operational issues within family-centered care and to discuss the relationship of family-centered care to other care models.On Our Radar On Our Radar Warner caves on Sirius Sirius XM said on Friday its failure to negotiate an extension with satellite radio provider Sirius XM Radio Inc was not a breach of a $400 million deal that gave Sirius a lifetime option on its satellite service in the U.S. Continue Reading Below Warner Music has also agreed not to launch its own satellite radio service, which was believed to have been the subject of the most recent round of negotiations, the company said on Friday. Shares of Sirius XM rose more than 3 percent after the announcement to close at $3.35 on the Nasdaq. Sirius said in its filing that the talks broke down in part because the two sides differed on the method for deriving the prices of channels. Crestone Holdings, 09e8f5149f
