Crack, Key, Keygen, Key, Activation, Activation, Serial, Serial, Registration, Registration, Pass, Pass, Code, Code, Protection, Protection, License, License. I am looking for the serial number from the on board diagnostics. How can I get it? A: as I'm not that much into the bowels of the car i never had a look at a diagnostic tool. Don't worry, they usually are not storing any confidential data - you just need to send a couple of questions by a short answer and a password to open the tool. This is the supported list of supported languages (selected because the tool is in English): AUSTRALIAN BELGIUM CANADA (English & French) CHINA GERMANY INDIA (English & Hindi) INDONESIA (English & Indonesian) JAPAN NETHERLANDS NORWAY PHILIPPINES PORTUGAL SINGAPORE SWEDEN you should be able to choose between English, Italian or Spanish it's required to enter the number of the vehicle this can be done by going to the "background applications" tab. then select on of the "new users" and enter a number the tool will start installing. this usually takes less than 5 min. You will probably see an interesting screen, similar to the one below. next you will want to enter your email and also your password. don't worry, it is not your email address that is used, you will not receive spam. now you can send the questions you want the tool to ask you for. the tool will start listening to your current phone connection, probably a wifi connection. you want to select "Text message" (as shown below). You will also see the standard read/write errors which are displayed on the screen. Ignore them. You need to send a text message to 805-567-555 to open the tool. if you don't do this you will also receive a message like below when starting the tool the first time. That's it, you will now see the following screen, where you can see which questions were asked and the 570a42141b
