I own this phone, and I don't want to root it because it's rooted, it doesn't work with google apps, so I'm not sure if I can install spotify without root. Does anyone know? A: You can download the app from Google Play and install it without root, but you will need to setup a user account. The account must match the same number as the phone, and you can't use a different Google account than the one you use with the phone. I tested with my Nexus 5, and it asked for a phone number, said it connected to Google Play, asked for my email,
