Sign up to gain early access to the closed Beta. BATTLE PICNIC Like Chess and Go, "Battle Picnic" is a game with great strategic depth; several different games can be played depending on your level of strategy and speed. INTRODUCTION TO THE GAME In Battle Picnic there are two game boards, normally 120x120 cm, each with a 20x20 cm space, and a number of game pieces. The name of each piece will give you an idea as to the role it plays. The object of each game is to occupy all spaces on your board with your pieces in as little time as possible, before the opponent(s) do the same. Each piece that lands on your opponents' board is instantly lost, so make sure you play defensively and use your intuition. Each game is a challenge, as each piece moves differently in each level. There are five levels of game; you will need to reach Level 5 before playing against the computer. When selecting your pieces you need to ensure that none of them have special powers, as this could cause you problems as you play the game. The background is simply white with black text on a neutral grey. The game is played using standard 8.5" x 11" paper. PLAY BATTLE PICNIC There are many ways to play Battle Picnic: * Play through the game in your own time. * Play against the computer. * Play by completing different challenges to gain access to the higher levels
