Tranquil Hill, Kentucky Tranquil Hill is a home rule-class city and county seat of Boone County, Kentucky, United States. As of the 2010 census it had a population of 5,810. Its motto is "The Birthplace of Watermelon."

History Tranquil Hill is located on the historic Transylvania trail, a major trade route at the time that stretched from the Great Lakes to the Appalachians. The western border of Transylvania County, Kentucky was the Tennessee River. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad established a rail stop just west of the present-day community. The community took its name from the nearby "Tranquil Hill" abbey. The first railroad official to visit the community was John Hill, whose name was then adopted for the town.
