It gives you a basic color palette and an uncluttered interface. In fact, this was one of the reasons I purchased this program. The one major drawback to CoffeeCup is that it doesn't support any RAW formats; it's simply a raster image editing application. * GIMP. * GIMP is an open-source image editing program, similar in many ways to Photoshop and Photoshop Elements. GIMP is a free program, but to get the latest version, you have to build it yourself. GIM

Statewide Voter Fraud Allegations and Trump Attacks Pile Up The latest, and one of the most serious, claims of in-person voter fraud was leveled against the state of Indiana on Friday, as it was revealed that an Indiana man had voted in four states in 2012 and at least one county in 2016. The revelation, in the context of a deluge of similar accusations from Donald Trump and local conservative radio personalities, caused people to rethink their opinions on voter fraud. At issue was a retired pension clerk named Leslie McCrae Dowless in Bladen County, North Carolina, who is being charged with 12 counts of election fraud in the case of North Carolina's 9th Congressional District. Dowless, who has been accused of collecting absentee ballots from voters and then not getting them to the elections board, could face up to 70 years in prison. Bladen County has been something of a local hot spot for the 2016 election, as the county clerk's office was accused of losing ballots before the 2016 presidential election, with the problem being exposed after the vote had already been counted. One potential Republican nominee for the Senate, Greg Brannon, filed a lawsuit to have ballots counted in the 2016 presidential election after taking out polls in Bladen County in the weeks after the election. The Bladen County fraud arrest is not the first time McCrae Dowless has been accused of voter fraud. In 2012, he was named in four cases of voter fraud as an agent and co-conspirator of Mark Harris, a Republican candidate in the 12th Congressional District. Dowless was then also named in three other cases of fraud in the 2016 election. In all of the cases, voters submitted absentee ballots that were altered or dropped off at polling places. None of the cases, of course, involved anyone voting in four states on the same day, or more than once. Not only that, but when called to the federal prosecutor's attention, Dowless' own lawyer attempted to downplay the problem, suggesting that the fraud only involved "a handful of voters" and suggesting that Dowless "did not act alone" in the crimes. The Dowless case highlights a problem with absentee ballots, as the local elections office has long had difficulties processing absentee ballots, as many come in without signatures, or the voters' signatures are forged. Still, Dowless is facing a very serious charge and, if convicted, could face a long time in
