A lot of people are excited and are ready to enjoy the offseason. But for the Los Angeles Dodgers not to enjoy it, it will be very difficult. They have a big offseason ahead of them. Even though they won the World Series, there are still a lot of things that they need to do to get their team back to the playoffs in 2019. Walker Buehler and Ross Stripling were very good as well but couldn't get through the seventh or eighth inning. They had to go to Kenley Jansen, who is a very strong closer but his game might not be as strong if he isn't used to having a lead. On top
