What I'm reading and what I'm thinking... New books I recently read a novel titled "The Chrysanthemum and the Sword". The main character, Sang Ho, starts out as a cog in the law enforcing bureaucracy of late Joseon Dynasty Korea, and discovers the hope of freedom when he escapes from prison and finds a way to the enemy, the Qing Dynasty. The second book I read is about the life of a real-life ninja. It is set in the early 17th Century. The main character, Chin Lin, is a wanted man who is desperately in search of his identity, his family, and a way to clear his name. Two books from the author of "From Sundown". These are some of the better books on the market today.

For those interested in learning more, there is the history foundation in Seoul, which is a free and volunteer based history foundation that is completely free for kids. There are also many programs designed for kids that are both free and accessible for both poor families and middle-class families. There are foreign language programs for kids in which they can learn the basics of the language and there are even English programs designed for some of the older kids. There is quite a bit of educational options that I am recommending here. Just keep in mind that it will not be cheap.

You can even enter "a monster" in the Google+ and get a whole variety of images that "a monster" can take. There are too many videos to choose from, but for the sake of simplicity, I just chose some of the more popular ones. Film If you haven't
