For the first time since 2007, Madonna's Material Girl is number one on the Billboard 200 chart. After just four years of waiting, and with just under 3,000 copies, the Material Girl set a new record for the biggest first week album sales in the chart's history. At this time, she is the longest reigning #1 album on the charts. As of yesterday, her good record is still intact as well. Hitting the high point at number one is a milestone for Madge, as this is the first time the highly anticipated release has entered the Billboard 200 chart. This is the second time in the history of the charts that we have celebrated the birthday of Madonna. It was back in 1993 when her debut album, Like A Virgin, hit #1. Unlike the first time that Madge appeared at the top of the chart, the Material Girl set a new record for the biggest first week album sales, and that is not something to be taken lightly. Her record prior to this point was 1,943,924. The Material Girl landed at 2,101,000 for the first time in the history of the Billboard 200. The figure represents a 45% increase in the first week sales of Madonna's latest album. DEVELOPMENTAL ASSOCIATES, INC. TENTH COURSE IN TROPE Tuesday, b7e8fdf5c8
