Meaning of graves to gardens lyrics and song

So 'Graves into Gardens' is an amazing testimony song which represents and explains the authority and power of God to us. It is one of those songs which confidently declares how faithful and trustful God is to each of us living here. It explains that there are some moments in our life which allow us to experience situations where we all find ourselves having a funeral for dreams which we once used to believe in.

There are times when the loss of a very close relationship just knocks the breath out of us and suddenly we start to feel like we are starting and getting into a hopeless situation. But this is the time where our God steps in to help and demonstrate and define his authority over it all because he specialises in turning all the things in a better way and around. He is also specialised in resurrection and so he is the only one who can just make a way in the most difficult situations and in the storms and wilderness in the wasteland.

The graves to gardens lyrics and song further explains that God is so powerful that he can even take a grave and turn it into a garden full of beautiful flowers. And so the main aim of the makers of the song is to let people believe and keep their faith in God's purpose, which will just remind you that his love is unbeatable and endures forever. He is the greatest of all who is always there to turn your bad days into good ones and that his faithfulness continues through all the generations. So never stop believing in your God as he is the mightiest of all.
